

WEEP NOT FOR ME

*Weep not for me though I am gone;
into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will but not for long,
upon my soul's sweet flight.*

*I am at peace,
my soul's at rest.*

*There is no need for tears.
For with your love I was blessed;
for all those many years.*

*There is no pain,
I suffer not,*

*The fear now all is gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts.*

*In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath;
remember not the strife.*

*Please do not dwell upon my death,
but celebrate my life.*

CELEBRATING LIFE

Miss Me-But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss Me a Little - But Not Too Long
And not with your head bowed low Remember the love that we once shared
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows
in doing good deeds.
Miss Me - But Let Me Go*

Peggy Sue McKinnon Mitchell ascended to her rest from her earthly labors on Saturday, October 13, 2018 at her home in North Little Rock, Arkansas. She had lived in North Little Rock most of her life. Peggy was born on December 9, 1933 in Delight, Arkansas to Hugh and Nannie McKinnon. She lived in Delight until graduation from high school then moved to Little Rock to further her education.

She was married to the late W.A. (Dub) Mitchell on April 27, 1956 and they enjoyed 54 years of marriage until his death in August 2010. They were the parents of three children: Donna Gayle Mitchell Beaver, Brooks Allen Mitchell, and Patti Lynn Mitchell Powell. She was preceded by her husband; her parents; a brother, Leon McKinnon; a son Brooks Allen Mitchell and son-in-law, Bill Powell.

Peggy is survived by her daughter, Donna and her husband, Charles Beaver of Sherwood; daughter, Patti Lynn Mitchell Powell of Jacksonville; daughter-in-law, Robin Mitchell of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; six grandchildren, Cory Hunt, Brittney Hunt, Brandon Hunt, Kinnon Mitchell and wife, Heather, Jonica Mitchell and Julie Mitchell; one step-granddaughter, Ronda Schreckenhofer; two great-grandchildren, Kimber and Kylee Mitchell and two step-great-grandchildren, Taylor and Trenton Schreckenhofer. She also leaves a host of extended family and friends.

Peggy was a long time member of the Levy Church of Christ where she served as a teacher in the primary department and was a department leader over grades 1-3 for many years. She was selected as "Teacher of the year" in 1992 and 1997. She was a great singer and assisted in the singing at many funeral services at Levy until she could not do so any longer. She will certainly be missed by her family, much loved church family and friends. The family wishes to express our heart-felt gratitude to her care givers and to hospice for their service during Peggy's long illness.
